

Trajan Gas Tight Syringes

Trajan SGE Syringes have consistently been the choice of global GC & LC manufacturers because of outstanding performance and superior quality in a vast variety of applications. The unique Plunger tip design ensures a gas-tight seal providing the lowest syringe carryover and outstanding reproducibility.

Whatman™ Mini-UniPrep™ Syringeless Filters

- Combine four products into one syringeless filter solution for efficient chromatography sample preparation for a broad range of applications
- Built for fast and easy HPLC/UHPLC sample preparation and analysis
- All in one filtration device for quick and cost effective chromatography sample processing
- Eliminates the need for separate syringes, syringe membrane filters, vials, and septa
- Designed for use with a HPLC or UHPLC autosampler for high throughput analysis
- 0.2 and 0.45µm filter pore sizes available to meet filtration sample requirements

Multicompressor

- Streamlines syringeless filtration by filtering up to eight filter vials simultaneously
- Designed for Mini-UniPrep™ standard plastic filter vials
- Mini-UniPrep™ vials can be loaded directly into the autosampler
