Sartorius arium® Water Purification Systems Continued

arium® pro

The arium® pro ultrapure water systems provide the ultimate flexibility and an excellent cost-benefit ratio because their device configurations are specially tailored to your applications. All systems meet and exceed the ASTM Type 1 water quality standards and ensure the best reproducible results. Up to 2L/min of ultrapure water with a conductivity of 0.055µS/cm (~18.2 MΩ+cm) can be dispensed in consistently high quality.

- Options of UV and Ultrafiltration
- Cartridge packs available for analytical, biological, standard and feedwater applications
- Option of a TOC monitor

arium® bagtank

The innovative arium® bagtank system replaces conventional storage tanks and, unlike conventional systems, utilises a replaceable bag for storage. Easy to exchange, the arium® bagtank protects pure water against secondary airborne contamination eliminating the need for time consuming and labour intensive cleaning procedures. Available with or without an integrated pump, the addition of rollers on the arium® bagtank let you move it easily to wherever you need to use it.
